

POCKETZ

Blimey I haven't been this hungry since I was in Australia, what's for dinner?

I don't do food anymore

Back at the campsite

I've got some lentils, a tomato and a sprig of parsley

Wow! sounds like the feast we had at Arapilies

and we may be able to save a bit for tomorrow

How many lentils each?.... 25?

Steady on Ruth

None for me. I'm not going to indulge in any DEAD plant eating. Lentils have feelings too you know

So what are you eating Lucy?

I've got a delicious sawdust and gravel risotto

LATER Does anyone know how to spell clep-toe-main-ear?

Have you noticed how similar chalk and cheese are?

I had a chip yesterday!

A whole one?

Fliss, how could you?

I'd never had one before, I just wanted to see what it was like. But it was horrid and I won't be doing it again

Hello... fellow female climbers. Anyone coming to the pub

No thanks! Just think of all that suffering the hops and barley has had to go through Who's paying?

ON THE EDGE
Je suis le knob du chien

Castle maine XXXX off!

Actually I was going to sew some sponsor's logos onto my knickers
